A pat answer, he adds, is probably not the solution. "The question here is not just what the parent says to the child, but what the parent's position is about whether the child's concerns may be legitimate. So I wouldn't want to just come out with some way to make the child feel less anxious at the moment or exert pressure to go.

Cited by many Black stand-up comedians. Sinbad even had a routine wherein his mother turned into a superhero for the express purpose of catching him and giving him a whopping. It was for talking back to her (which you did not do with your parents back in the day) during lawn cutting day, and then turning around while she was reprimanding him. She beat him so bad, it was Monday when he woke up.
