IB Literature Paper 1. Paper 1 is the most straight-forward of your two exams. However, it is possibly the most difficult to prepare for because you will not know what text you are going to talk about. It is entirely unseen, which means that in theory - unless you're very lucky - you haven't read the texts before. The IB describes it below:

Your answer needs to be a coherent piece of writing, not just chunks of good ideas; so you need to sew your paragraphs together so it reads like one complete piece.. The topic is usually about a CRISIS so a good way to make sure there's a common thread is to use language that reflects that.. Use words like “urgent” and “imperative” throughout your answer to get across that sense of ...
