Kaput - definition of kaput by The Free Dictionary

Kaputt is a book of opposites: high society and cabals of murderers, rude naturalism and celestial ideals, filthy squalor and divine art, brutal cruelty and abstract humanism - all these become interconnected and interchangeable. The narration is sanguinarily metaphoric and tenebrously imaginative: Twisted tree roots broke through the crystal sheet like frozen serpents, - it seemed as if ...

Kaputt is quite simply a perfect storm of those many moments in our lives... if ever lived. Destroyer's songs explore our modern society, they forsake the media that controls us, shames the delusions of an empire and feeds our devilish vices. The music that saturates Destroyer's words is compelling, sometimes brilliant, carrying the vocals with ...
