In my early years, I only focussed on one sport. I wanted to be a professional football player. Finding tennis was just a lucky coincidence. My brother was playing tennis on a court across the street from where I practised football, and that is where I hit my first balls at eight years old. Faber was always my biggest supporter in tennis.

Even with water droplets on the screen it was very readable, and the touch point was accurate. The touch screen menu is very intuitive and quick. This is a clear advantage over the Garmin Rino 530HCx. The screen resolution is similar to the Rino 530HCx but the larger size is easier on my 40+ year old eyes.
