Williams, Bronwyn T. Shimmering Literacies: Popular ...

Bronwyn Williams 2009 Shimmering Literacies: Popular Culture and Reading and Writing Online addresses these very questions. Williams deals less with the question of digital composing (at least insofar as it generally intersects with tools), and much more so on a "participatory culture" and students' out-of-school engagement with popular culture.

popular media culture. This practice marginalises children whose literacy practices at home are predominantly with television, videos, computers, comics and magazines rather than with 'quality' children's books. Concerns regarding the role of popular media culture in children's lives are critically examined and responses explored.
