Seeing through the Fog is a book of heartbreak and honest contemplation of life. Ed shares all the areas of his heart in his greatest struggle he has ever faced and how he discovers hope through the fog. I would highly recommend this book to caregivers, people going through life altering diagnosis or challenges. Thanks for sharing your heart Ed.

Through the Fog (Evan #1) is a shorter novel which reads more like a prequel to a series, where we meet all the important characters and get the back story for how everyone got to the place where weird things will start happening. I'm excited to see where this series leads, because so far it's giving off a serious Stranger Things kind of vibe.
